

I want to keep our Wisconsin No-Call list. I am satisfied with the toughness of it, and the results it has provided the last 2 years. I believe the Federal list is too lax and has too many loopholes in it and is too slanted towards business, not the protection of the general public.